A reminder that SHAC guide was provided and an overview of the guidelines was given at the last meeting. Agenda was sent via email prior to the meeting. Mr. Hagler thanked the committee for their service and time.

Terry Hagler reviewed the discussion of adopting the health sexuality curriculum for the district in line with the new health TEKS. He inquired if everyone on the committee had a chance to review the Goodheart-Wilcox digital textbook and companion workbook. All members agreed. Reminded the committee this textbook was the only manual adopted by the state. School district agrees with textbook material as it aligns with health TEKS and community beliefs as well. Recognizes no public interest present to discuss the book and companion other than committee members. Opens floor for questions and answers regarding the health TEKS and curriculum. Reminds everyone no student is taught human sexuality without the parent opting in first. Communication will be addressed on how to inform parents, how to obtain the curriculum being taught and the opt in option. Angie H. asks what will happen to the students who did not opt in? Mr. Hagler states those students will likely remain in the classroom setting with the opt-in students transitioning to another location for the lesson. In addition the opt in students will likely be separated by gender to be educated on the topic(s). Definite length of instruction, one or two days, unknown at this time including the format to teach. District will make the workbook companion to the textbook available to parents at the central administration office and the campuses where the instruction will take place. DeeDee Baker expressed she thought the textbook was tastefully done and biology specific. Max Johnson inquired about the health material dated. Corissa Parris added no new health TEKS is why no updated material. Josh Hardwick added he feels it is the parent responsibility more than the school district to cover the topic. He likes the opt in approach, making the information available and done in a tasteful manner.

The SHAC council voted to adopt the Goodheart - Willcox Human Sexuality curriculum (companion Piece). There was a motion by Josh Hardwick and second by Max Johnson. The committee then approved by unanimous vote to adopt the textbook..

Mr. Hagler will represent SHAC, listing all council members, to present to the school board. Health teachers, Mrs. Baker and Mrs. Eastman, approve of the textbook as well. States they like the updates. Max Johnson inquired what updates they like. Mrs. Baker specified the side stories of scenarios applicable to the student and others regarding social and emotional health. Mrs. Baker explained the importance of physical, mental and emotional health in conjunction with body systems. Mrs. Eastman explains when teaching the stress unit students are taught how to recognize in themselves and in others. Mr. Hagler asks health teachers if they feel comfortable with the material. They both say yes.

Angelica Walker and Kristi Landeros update the committee on the wellness policy guidelines. Report the district is participating in the Child Nutrition COVID-19 waiver program. Requirements are being met such as 30 mins for lunch, peanut free tables and cleaning, posters in the cafeteria, nibbles available in print and provided on the district website. Mr. Hagler inquired if the nibbles publication is emailed? It is not currently emailed, nutrition services agrees to check accessibility and remind the committee that it is available via print and district website. Other requirements that are being fulfilled include menus posted online and gluten free options obtainable. Mr. Hagler updated committee on CATCH program through wellness is taught in the PE classes at the elementary campuses. He will follow up with the East side in regards to the instruction as he is aware of West side participation. Mrs. Landeros informed the committee the requirements for cafeteria staff training is 6hours. The staff actually receive between 10 to 12 hours of training both online and in person. Mr. Hagler then informed regarding coaches required training that include, concussion protocol, cpr, and tackling safety. One area to make progress in is physical health of employees.
